Communication:

The Kenora Catholic District School Board is pleased to announce that Mr. Jamey Robertson has accepted the position of IT Coordinator. His new tenure will begin at the start of the 2011/12 school year. Jamey has a Master of Education Technology degree and many additional IT qualifications. He has been a teacher with our board since 2004. In 2010 Jamey was the recipient of the Director's Award for Excellence in Catholic Education for his efforts in providing IT training at the system level.

In September 2011 Jamey will teach half time at Pope John Paul II school and half time as the IT Coordinator in the Catholic Education Centre. The administration and staff are looking forward to Jamey's knowledge and skills as we move our students forward into the 21st Century.

We are pleased that Jamey will be taking on this Catholic Leadership position. His experience and education will lead to continued support for student achievement in our schools.
