Communication:

The Kenora Catholic District School Board is pleased to announce that Mrs. Nicole Kurtz has accepted the position of Teaching Vice Principal at École Ste. Marguerite Bourgeoys. Nicole has a Bachelor of Education degree from Lakehead University and has been the Guidance Counselor at St. Thomas Aquinas High School for the past four years. She has been a teacher with our board since 1997. Nicole has been instrumental in introducing new and innovative programs into the Guidance program at the high school.

In September 2011 Nicole will assume a part time Vice Principal position at École Ste. Marguerite Bourgeoys while continuing to provide part time Guidance Counseling services at St. Thomas Aquinas High School. The administration and staff are looking forward to Nicole's knowledge and leadership skills as we move our students forward in Catholic education.

We are pleased that Nicole will be taking on this Catholic Leadership position. Her experience and education will lead to additional support for student achievement at École Ste. Marguerite Bourgeoys.
