Communication:

The Kenora Catholic District School Board is pleased to appoint Mrs. Maureen Carlin-Frankcom to the position of Principal at Pope John Paul II School.

Mrs. Carlin-Frankcom has been employed with the Kenora Catholic District School Board since 1998. Most recently Mrs. Carlin-Frankcom has been Vice Principal at Pope John Paul II School. Prior to that she has been a teacher and subject area chair at St. Thomas Aquinas High School. Mrs. Maureen Carlin-Frankcom brings numerous skills and competencies to her new role. These include a variety of leadership experiences within the system such as her work with the Arts Council, mentorship, numerous drama productions, coaching and refereeing basketball. Her background also includes experience with the Ontario Secondary School Literacy Test at the provincial level.

"Mrs. Carlin-Frankcom is an outstanding educational leader with a proven track record. We are excited with the innovations that she has planned to increase student achievement", says Phyllis Eikre, Director of Education.

"One of the advantages of hiring from within is that we can be confident that there will be a seamless transition in school leadership that directly benefit the students at Pope John Paul II School", says Darryl Michaluk, Chair of the Board.

Her position will be effective August 30th.
