Communication:

The Kenora Catholic District School Board is pleased to appoint Mrs. Michelle Sawa to a teaching vice principal position at St. John's Separate School.

Mrs. Michelle Sawa was the vice principal at Pope John Paul II School for the 2010 – 11 School year and has done a tremendous job with student success and leadership support in the school.

Formerly Mrs. Michelle Sawa was employed with St. John's Separate School since 1999. Most recently, Mrs. Sawa has been a grade 7/8 classroom teacher and teacher designate. She completed her Ontario Principal Qualifications and specialized in the fields of Literacy and Special Education.

"I'm really excited to be back at St. John's Separate School and provide Catholic leadership in a community that I love", says Sawa.

Sawa's new tenure will begin in the 2011 school year.
